

FCCLA Week
Wessington Springs Senior FCCLA Chapter
2016-2017

FCCLA Week was busy with school only 4 days that week Members kicked off the week by celebrating family through involvement in the FCCLA at the Table Project. Members of the chapter prepared a meal for their family and sat down and ate together as a family.

Tuesday was “Community” Day. Members coordinated a benefit for the mother of one of the members. She was burned in an accident earlier in the year.

Wednesday was “Career Day.” Members dressed appropriately for a career of interest to them.

Thursday was “Leadership Day.” Members celebrated their leadership in FCCLA by wearing their FCCLA shirts. All members received a roll. Rolls also were given to the staff to thank them for their support.

Throughout the week, members were challenged to find hidden emblems to answer questions related to FCCLA.
