

Community Service
 Volley for the Cure
 Wessington Springs Senior FCCLA Chapter
 2018-2019

The Senior FCCLA members sponsored the supper for the Volley for the Cure Night. Volley for the Cure raises money for the local cancer support group. The Senior FCCLA Chapter donated $125 to the cause.

Above: Makayla Dornbusch, Chloe Munsen, Trinity Flowers, Grace Gran, and Mackenzie serve supper at the Volley for the Cure Night.
 Right: Chasity Vissia presented two checks for the local cancer support group at one of the basketball games – one from her Senior Experience and FCCLA project and one from the FCCLA chapter.

Spartan athletic programs,
 students donate locally

 Two photographs stacked vertically. The top photo shows two men in a gymnasium; one is handing a check to the other. The bottom photo shows a young woman in a 'SPARTAN' jersey, two men, and another man in a gymnasium setting, with one man presenting a check.

The Weskota Foundation, dedicated to preserving healthcare services in Jerauld County, was the recipient of donations generated by the Lady Spartan Volleyball team's Volley for a Cure and student athlete Chasity Vissia's senior project, a 3 on 3 basketball tournament held earlier last year.
 TOP: Volleyball coaches (left to right) Lynn Neely and Jordan Von Eye present the Volley for a Cure check to Roger Hainy, Weskota Foundation board member.
 LOWER: Student athlete Chasity Vissia presented checks to the Lady Spartan basketball program and the Weskota Foundation. Shown left to right are: Vissia, Basketball Coaches Kim Wipf and Jordan Von Eye and Weskota Foundation board member Roger Hainy.