

Career Connection – FCS and FCCLA Wessington Springs Senior FCCLA Chapter 2019-2020

President Emma Lammey and Vice President Brock Stevens worked with FCCLA Adviser Charlotte Mohling to present information on the family and consumer sciences (FCS) education career to the 7th grade Life Skills class during FCCLA Week. Emma and Brock explained the connection between FCS and FCCLA and Mrs. Mohling shared her story about her journey as a family and consumer sciences teacher. Emma and Brock presented on the day community members were invited to visit the FCS classroom, so some community members had the opportunity to learn about FCS and FCCLA as well.

FCCLA week inspires, educates and celebrates 65 years of local chapter

KRISTI HINE / TRUE DAKOTAN

Wessington Springs Family, Career and Community Leaders (FCCLA) members shared "Our Story" during FCCLA Week, February 10 - 14 including their stories of involvement in FCCLA, career plans and family stories.

ABOVE: FCCLA leaders Brock Stevens and Emma Lammey spoke to seventh graders about the myriad of experiences available for students in FCCLA after conducting a survey about the younger students' knowledge about FCCLA and Family And Consumer Sciences (FACS). ABOVE RIGHT: FACS teacher Charlotte Mohling shared her reasons for teaching with the seventh grade class, stating that for her, she sees no other profession in which you get a chance to make an impact on the future.

